

Technologic Park

Technologic Park

Mato Grosso Technology Park

The Mato Grosso Technology Park is an enterprise created and managed with the objective of promoting research and innovation in the technological area and stimulating cooperation between research institutions, universities and companies.

This park is an important mechanism in the process of technological innovation in Mato Grosso, especially for having the ability to promote the development of companies from ideas and technologies generated in educational and research institutions, but with the partnership of executives and entrepreneurs.

Sectors:

- Agribusiness
- Biotechnology
- Information and Communication Technologies
- Geoscience
- Green Chemistry
- Innovation Environments

Source: Mato Grosso Technology Park