

Industrial Zone of Bissau

Industrial Zone of Bissau

There are no organized industrial parks, only private structures without great conditions in terms of work, access or security, for example. There is a lack of structures that have their own electricity and water, guaranteeing operations even in times when the public supply is lacking.

Source: GBI – Guinea Investment promotion Agency – Country File (Current economic panorama and summary of the main investment opportunities)