

Introduction to Vilankulo

Introduction to Vilankulo

Vilanculos, or Vilankulo, is a district in Mozambique located in the northern area of the province of Inhambane. Its headquarters are based in the Town of Vilanculos.

Tourism is one of the district's main economic activities, due to several tourist resorts in the town of Vilanculos and the two islands within the Bazaruto Archipelago; they are under the district's administration, namely the Benguerra and Magaruque Islands. As such, the town is equipped with an international airport.

Source: Inhambane Province Government